Announcements:

You will have a rare Thursday, non-Monday, test this week. It is better to do this then to give a test after a four day weekend.

This week you have your first lab book lab which will be in class on Tuesday. It is the electrochemical series lab and needs to be prepared in your lab book before Tuesday! Do it this weekend

By now you should have pages 1-14 of your lecture outline finished. Spend some time making sure it is complete.
